

Small Office Network Simulation

Overview

This lab focuses on designing a small office network and validating the behaviour of the core services that make it usable in practice.

What the lab includes

- Topology design notes
- Service setup and validation steps
- Checks for DHCP, DNS, HTTP, and AAA behaviour

Main goal

Build a realistic office topology, configure the required services, and verify that the devices and users can authenticate and reach the services they need.